

THE WEEKLY GRAPHIC.

T. E. SULLIVAN, PROPRIETOR.

KIRKSVILLE, - - - MISSOURI.

FRIDAY APRIL 7, 1893.

Kirksville can now boast of the leanest alderman in the State.

The candidates on the Republican city ticket are all happy.

Adair county bonds are too valuable for Quincy firms to handle.

The "smash ye in de jaw" crowd got knocked out in St. Louis Tuesday.

Filley and the Globe-Democrat make a strong team when they pull together.

Chicago elected Carter Harrison, the Democratic nominee for Mayor, by a majority of 20,000.

Spring cleaning is going on in house and door yard. The streets and alleys should also have attention.

Instead of mixing mud on the highways this year, the road tax should be expended in building a few rods of good road.

The spirit of progress is abroad in the land and the new city council may be safely counted on to keep pace with the times.

St. Louis elected a Republican ticket Tuesday. It was a victory of respectability over ring rule, corruption and hoodlumism.

Bishop Fowler's lecture on "Great Deeds of Great Men," Monday night richly deserved the magnificent audience that greeted the speaker.

H. V. Ricker, the banker of Quincy, who bid 90 cents on Adair county and Benton township bonds, should get posted as to what such bonds are actually worth.

The March weather may have been a little rough on us, but the April weather and the result of the city election are furnishing us with all the enjoyment we could desire.

Find a locality in this country which has good roads and you will find farmers who are more prosperous than their brothers who live where the mud road is the general rule.

It is estimated that twenty two per cent of the wheat in Illinois has been winter killed. This with the decreased acreage will reduce the crop of that state to nearly one-half the yield of 1892.

Secretary Rusk had scarcely been inducted into office when he began the great work of extending the markets for American pork and hog products. Secretary Morton, however, is too busy with the office seekers to give any attention to the other great American hog.

The Republican Editorial Association of Missouri, will convene in the Joplin Club rooms, Joplin, Mo., April 12. An interesting programme has been prepared, and members of the Republican press throughout the state should attend if possible for them to do so.

The President will re-convene the international money conference at Brussels May 30. Senator Allison, who discharged the duties of president of the American delegation has been obliged from business considerations to surrender the idea of carrying forward his work as a delegate. This is to be regretted as Mr. Allison is one of the strongest men of the delegation.

This week the county court received five sealed bids for $55,000 Adair county and the $10,000 Benton township bonds. H. M. Noel & Co., St. Louis bid 100 1/4 flat cash on county bonds and 100 on bonds of Benton township; Gaylord, Blessing & Co., of St. Louis, bid $65,082.55 or a premium of $82.55 on entire issue. H. V. Ricker of Quincy, bid 90 on entire issue or any part thereof. F. P. Hays of Lancaster bid $65,275 and agreed to pay all costs of registering and exchange. E. H. Rollins & Son, of Chicago, bid $55,476 on Adair county bonds, a premium of $476.00. This being the highest, and best bid the Adair county bonds were awarded and sold to E. H. Rollins & Son. Frank P. Hays of Lancaster was awarded the Benton township bonds at par.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, April 3, 1893

From Our Regular Correspondent

Democratic senators are figuratively moving heaven and earth to prevent the investigation of the charge of criminal embezzlement made against Senator Roach, of North Dakota, directed by Senator Hoar's resolution. They first tried a bluff by stating that other senators were in the same boat with Roach, and intimating that Power, of Montana, was one of them. That didn't work, not even a little bit, for senator Power promptly denounced it as false and demanded the most searching investigation, two things which Roach has not done. The democratic senators have good reasons to fear anything that promises to expose the true inwardness of the election of Roach to the senate, which was brought about by special and explicit directions from senator Gorman, who was the chairman of the democratic senatorial "steering" committee. There is good reason for the belief that actual facts in the deal by which Roach became senator would, if made public, cause a national scandal with more or less disgraceful ramifications in a number of states. The democratic senators are now making personal appeals to the most easy-going republican senators, to let the whole matter drop, because whatever the result of the investigation so far as Roach is concerned it will bring a scandal upon the good name of the senate that will cling to it at home and abroad for many years. I have no authority to speak for republican senators, but I violate no confidence in stating that a number of them have made up their minds that something has got to be done, and if Roach doesn't resign before the senate gets through with the cases of the appointed senators, now under consideration, they propose to have some action taken on senator Hoar's resolution or to let the country know why. It has just been learned that the new program of the democratic senators is to force an immediate adjournment of the senate as soon as the cases of the appointed senators are disposed of. They are perfectly willing to postpone the election of the senate officers until the meeting of the extra session, which Mr. Cleveland has decided to call in September. The excuse given is that it will be impossible to keep a quorum of senators here after these cases are voted upon. It has been suggested that if the senate fails to act Mr. Roach may be arrested and tried in the criminal court for embezzling the funds of the bank of which he was cashier, but such a proceeding is not probable.

The break between Mr. Cleveland and ex-Speaker Crisp, which last week looked as though it would result in bringing forward a new candidate for the speakership of the House, in opposition to Crisp, and backed by all the influences of the administration, has been, it is now understood, patched up by the administration by an extra heavy dose of humble pie to Crisp. It was not, however, forced upon him, but he went to the White House and asked for it. Under this agreement, which is much more humbling to Mr. Crisp than the one made in New York just before the meeting of the last session of congress, The Georgian is to be elected speaker of the house again and to draw the salary and perform the routine duties of the position, but the real authority is to be exercised by Cleveland who has already determined that Springer, chairman of the ways and means committee, and Holman, chairman of the appropriation committee, shall not again be placed at the heads of those committees.

The reason why Cleveland has not appointed a commissioner of pensions has leaked out. He has so far failed to find a man who comes up to the requirements and is at the same time willing to pledge himself to do certain things which are to be required of the new commissioner. It has been, so those in confidence say, definitely decided by Mr. Cleveland that the commissioner must be an Eastern man who does not belong to the G. A. R., and that he shall be willing to inaugurate a system of handling applications that will place as many restrictions and as much humiliation upon the applicants for pensions as can possibly be done by stretching existing laws to the limit, in the wrong direction, to say nothing to treating pensioners already on the rolls as frauds who have no right to be there.

Estimating Height.

A writer in a turf journal gives the following rule to estimate the height a colt will grow to: "Take a colt at any time between six weeks old and one year, stand him on a level surface so that he will stand naturally, then measure the distance from the hair of the hoof to his knee joint, and for every inch or fraction thereof he measures he will be hands high when matured. If he measures 15 inches he will grow to be 15 hands high; if 15 1/2 inches he will be 15 1/2 hands high and so on.

Don't sign anything without first reading. It may be a promissory note. At Springfield, Mo., recently, a man made a wager with some friends that he could get signers to a promissory note payable to himself. The note was drawn up in due form with interest at 8 per cent. Four business men quoted high in finance, readily signed the "petition for a sidewalk" not knowing that it was a note for $5,000 payable one day after date. The note was taken to a bank and word was sent to the parties that their note was in the bank for collection. Then there was revelry on the street. Those men went to the bank hot with rage only to be confronted by their own signatures to a note for $5,000. Then their faces blanched with wonder and lingering suspicion of forgery. Finally a meeting of the debtors and creditors was called and it was decided to compromise the matter by the four men buying a supply of cigars for the crowd. The cigars were bought and the note cancelled.

Send 25 cts. in stamps to the Western Poultry Breeder, Topeka, Kansas, and you will get it for a year.

School meeting at this place was not well attended Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kellogg were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Propst, Sunday.

Mr. Cole shipped an unusually fine car load of horses to Chicago Tuesday.

Charles Draper, who spent the winter in Nebraska, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. J. Seigmund spent last week in Kirksville, visiting her daughter Mrs. B. Henry.

The house of Mr. Shade was completely ransacked last Sunday while the family were at a neighbor's a quarter of a mile away. Nothing of any consequence was taken, although nothing was left undisturbed. Trunks, boxes and packages were inspected. Articles of clothing were investigated even to turning the pockets. Beds also were closely inspected. In short nothing escaped their notice. Mr. Shade says they are unable to decide whether they were in search of money or whether it was done out of a desire for fun. It was at least a bold and daring act and deserves the severest punishment the law can inflict.

It Explains Itself.

The following letter, written by a lady of Vermont, is only one of the many instances which happen and always go to prove that an article of real merit can be depended on to win in the long run. Mrs. J. O. Northrup, of Burlington, Vt., after a recent visit with her son-in-law, Mr. Clary, of Des Moines, wrote as follows: "I caught a bad cold on my way home, and am sorry I did not bring a bottle or two of the Cubeb cough cure with me. I can't get anything here that does me as much good." Mr. Clary says that they would not be without Cubeb cough cure for their children. 25 and 50 cents bottles. Sold by all druggists.

Quincy Glee Club.

The Quincy Glee Club will give one of their highly entertaining concerts at the Opera House on Saturday night April 15th. While probably unknown to the majority of our people, competent judges who have heard them, were so delighted with their efforts that they immediately commenced getting up a guarantee fund that they might visit Kirksville. While that fund is not wholly made up they feel justified in thinking themselves safe and they will certainly visit us. The club has about fourteen members who are of Quincy's best families and give one of the most entertaining concerts which is of such a character that all classes of people whether musical or not enjoy it, as their encore numbers are not only humorous but some of them are simply ludicrous, being of the college glee club style. Mr. F. C. Parker the noted whistler is a member of the club. They also bring with them a first class zither player. They come in a special car and will probably bring quite a party of Quincy friends with them. The concert will not commence until 8:30 o'clock.

Stands Without a Rival.

Is the language used in the following letter by a gentleman, who unsolicited, gives his opinion and highest praise to an article of superior value in the following interesting and terse style:

GENTLEMEN:—I have been troubled with very severe headaches for years and have taken a great many different remedies, but have never found anything to give me as speedy and permanent a cure as Krause's Headache Capsules. In my opinion they stand without a rival; they have cured me in every case. JOHN N. WILKIE. 36 Adams Ave., West Detroit, Sold by all druggists.
